

FAOC 05-02

Welcome

MAJ Warren E. Hoy, FAO Program Director

Agenda

- Introduction
- Announcements
- Guests
- FAO Course Objectives
- Summary

Announcements

- Refreshments
- Child care throughout to include the reception on Monday Night
- FAOC Reception 1830-2030 at Weckerling Center
- $20 Fee for refreshments and reception
- Course attendance and scheduled meetings
- Interviews
- “Quiet Please!” During presentations and while nearby meetings are in progress

Guests

- MG Dayton Dir. Strategy, Plans & Policy, G-3
- Amb Peck Former Ambassador to Iraq
- LTC Rumphrey 48G/J Regional Manager
- LTC Turner 48C/E Regional Manager
- LTC Ziccarello FAO Branch Chief - HRC

PATH TO EXCELLENCE

Fully Trained FAO

FAOC: “Basic Course” of the FAO Program and the first step in the FAO training cycle.

→ Advanced Civil Schooling

→ In Country Training

→ Language Training

FAOC:
→ Prepare
→ Focus

FAO Course Objectives

PRIMARY OBJECTIVE:

Opportunity to directly interface with your program and training managers.

FAO Course Objectives

- Update FAOs on current policy developments
- Maximize interaction with experienced FAOs, spouses, and Country Team Personnel
- Familiarize new FAOs with:
 - Roles, duties, and career development of a FAO
 - Attaché, SAO, POL-MIL Officer, Instructor, Army Liaison Officer
 - Interaction and operation of a Country Team

FAO Course Objectives

- Clarify requirements of FAO training:
 - Language
 - Graduate School
 - In Country Training
- Orient the new FAO and spouse (FAO Team) to life abroad

Summary

- Better understand the FAO career pattern
- Interact w/ Experienced FAOs & FAO Spouses
- Latest Policy Updates
- Be prepared for the “F” in FAO

Questions/Discussion

